1. Between 8-13 April 1947 about 600-700 naval troops arrived by Junkers 52 at Putnitz Airfield where they are now stationed. They are mainly of the 1926-1928 Class and are dark-skinned Armenian types. The FPN of the unit is 33178; the name of the airfield adjutant is Peter Shuvalov.
2. Apart from the newly-arrived naval troop, some fifteen Red Army men have been stationed permanently on the airfield for some months. They have the word, "Ukraine", on their shoulder-tabs.
3. The mobile W/T station there, of which the vehicle numbers are "ø 4 - 28 - 11" and "ø 28 - 0 - 61", is manned day and night.
4. No dismantling is now taking place; the runway is being extended, and rubble from destroyed buildings cleared away. Only three small monoplane were stationed at the airfield at the time of reporting.
